

House Resolution No. 335

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an extraordinary young Missouri citizen who has attained tremendous personal success through achievement in the Boy Scouts of America program; and

Whereas, Jacob Daniel "Jake" Summers of Affton, Missouri, will receive the prestigious Eagle Scout Award from Troop 721 during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held May 9, 2002, at Sappington School; and

Whereas, Jake Summers earned the praise and respect of many for the enthusiasm and initiative he displayed in regard to his Eagle Project which involved the installation of flag poles at the new World Bird Sanctuary; and

Whereas, during his six years in the Scouting program, Jake Summers earned an impressive twenty-six merit badges, received the God and Country award, attained Brotherhood membership in the Order of the Arrow, and participated in various hiking and camping activities; and

Whereas, Jake Summers has readily prepared himself for the challenges of the outside world through his important terms of service to his Troop as Assistant Patrol Leader, Patrol Leader, and Librarian; and

Whereas, a remarkable young man who has played ice hockey in Affton since he was three years old, Jake Summers is an exemplary student at his school where he is an Honor Student and excels in his studies while somehow finding the time and energy to serve as a percussionist on the Drum Line at Sperreng Middle School and member of the St. Louis Blues Junior Ice Crew; and

Whereas, Jake Summers has achieved all of this and more with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud parents, Dan and Tina Summers:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Jake Summers at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best as he continues to uphold the Scouting tradition with both honor and decorum; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Jacob Daniel Summers.
